REX TO-MORROW.

Western Cowpunchers in "The Tenderfoot" Cast.

Yan cowpunchers and riders, than whom there are none better in the Southwest, appear in the cast of "The Tenderfoot." They are Jay Ryan, George Hart, Fred Burke, and Al. Their fine work in "The Tenderfoot" and "Dead Shot Baker" makes them welcome friends in the adaptation of the famous "Tenderfoot" tales by Alfred Henry Lewis.

Robert Duncan and Carol Holloway, the perfect stars of western and outdoor pictures, lead the cast in "The Tenderfoot" and are supported by Florence Dye, Walter Hedges, Charles Wheelock, Harry Harkiss, Joe Ryan, and Fred Hart.

REX TO-DAY.

Carolina Alma Ruebens from Russia—But Cameron said, "Oh, H—"

An overzealous traffic officer in Nashville Park spoiled a good many days of fun and severely rattled the commander's temper when a military reviewing was staged in the park. "Regenerates," featuring Alma Ruebens, the script called for the views of Alma Ruebens to be unobscured by the hero. But the officer didn't read the script, and when he saw Miss Ruebens approaching, he broke-necked ahead, and called loudly for help. He could not expect the appeal of the beauty to be heeded.

Launching himself from the bridge with a flying tackle, which would have done credit to an American, he caught the hero by the back of the neck. But the "thanks" he received from the camera-men didn't make a bit of difference to the hero.

From Britain is to call out another of her reserves.

SCHOOL BOND ELECTION.

Those of Pembroke will vote tomorrow on the question of issuing $100,000 bonds to build a new school building which was recently condemned as dangerous and unfit for use. ## CLOSE CALL.

Chief Premier Clemenceau, while on a daily visit to the front, ventured so near the first line that his automobile was shelled by the German artillery. All the windows were broken, but Mr. Clemenceau was not hurt.

FOLLOWING THE FLAG.

Mrs. John T. Smith, formerly Miss Ruth West, received a cablegram yesterday from her husband announcing his safe arrival in France. He had been in training at Camp Taylor. This was the first intimation that one of the first draft are in France. Ben Cowherd, who was one pound under weight ten days ago, was re-examined yesterday in Nashville and was accepted for the Navy. He had been fattening himself and easily kept on the extra pound needed to conform to red tape regulations. He will join the other boys at Paris Island.

Miss Pansy Jenkins, a popular young trained nurse of Hopkinsville, is safe in France after an ocean trip through the war zone. She is a Red Cross nurse, and for several months has been in intensive training at Camp Zachary Taylor. She is the first local woman to reach the battle front.

E. H. Armstrong left yesterday for Red Bull Springs, Tenn., to spend ten days.

PRINCESS TO-DAY AN

Interviewing Billie Burke Bene of Reporter's Life.

That screen stars are busy people was amply demonstrated at the studios recently when a reporter attempted to get a few words with that popular star. After over an hour of waiting he was admitted to her presence in the dusky recesses of the studio. But it was not to be. Constant interruptions from director,

BILLIE BURKE
in "Eve's Daughter"

and whatnot prevented interview further than the repeated assurance that Miss Burke was devoted to picture work and greatly preferred it to the stage, in fact. Personally, the reporter decided that he preferred almost anything to interview her. Her latest picture made under the direction of James Kirkwood is "Eve's Daughter." Alicia Ramsey's play which was produced on a Broadway stage this year with Miss Burke as the star.
